AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of July, 1762,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 2d of April last, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of His Majesty's Royal Navy: And also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the said 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves in like Manner to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May last. — And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been continued and extended to the 31st of this Instant July; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said 31st Day of this Instant July, to the 30th Day of September next. And that the said Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d of April last. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

St. James's, September 7.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Officers of the Militia, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Southampton, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Officers of the Militia, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Southampton.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects, with Hearts full of Joy and Affection, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the safe and happy Delivery of the Queen, and the most auspicious Birth of a Prince.

This interesting Event, we promise ourselves, will secure to these Kingdoms the most inestimable Blessings, and, if possible, still more endear the Best of Kings, to the Happiest of Subjects.

It is with the highest Joy and Satisfaction, we find your Majesty's most amiable and beloved Consort, is, through Divine Providence, most happily recovered; and that his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales is in perfect Health.

We are so truly sensible of the Blessings flowing from your Majesty's Wisdom and Virtue, that, from Interest, as well as Duty and Affection, we pray for your Majesty's Happiness and Prosperity; and we assure ourselves, that your great Example will be an unerring Guide to your Royal Descendant, and form him on the Principles of true Honour and Virtue, to govern a free and loyal People, when the Fullness of Time shall call him to the Throne of his Illustrious Ancestors.

We pray the Almighty to continue the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms, to establish your Throne on that most solid and glorious Foundation, on which it now stands, the united Affections of a free and loyal People; confidently relying on your sovereign Wisdom, to obtain what has been so long wished for, (and seems by Heaven reserved for your Majesty's Reign) an honourable and lasting Peace.

The

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Clergy, of the County of Radnor, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Clergy, assembled at the Great Sessions held in and for the County of Radnor, the 27th of August 1762.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person, with most sincere Congratulations on the safe and happy Delivery of the Queen; and on the Birth of a Prince, who, from his natural Relation to our Country, as well as Descent from a Line of the most Illustrious Ancestors, claims every Sentiment and Expression of Joy that Britons can conceive or utter.

The private and public Virtues of an excellent Monarch receive additional Lustre by His Union with a Protestant Family, distinguished for its Love of Liberty, and constant Zeal to the Religious and Civil Happiness of Mankind: Our Prospect of National Felicity, though enlarged by every Circumstance of Royal Wisdom, grows still more extensive by the auspicious Event of the memorable Twelfth of August; a Day which Providence seems to have pointed out as a Prefage of future Blessings, in a glorious Successor, to Posterity.

May the same Providence, who has hitherto signified your Majesty's Reign with great and numerous Marks of Divine Favor, increase and multiply every Instance of His Goodness to your Majesty, our Gracious Queen, and his Royal Highness the Prince.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and the rest of the Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Charles Sloane Cadogan, and Soame Jenyns, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and the rest of the Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council and Burgesses of your ancient and loyal Corporation of Cambridge, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the safe Delivery, and since continued Health of the Queen, and the happy Birth of a Prince.

As every Blessing showered down by Divine Providence on your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, cannot but create in us the sincerest Joy, so the present happy Event, so conducive to the domestick Felicity of your Majesty and your Royal Consort, and so important to the Welfare and Prosperity of these Nations, must in a particular Manner affect us with the highest Satisfaction, and most unfeigned Pleasure.

To our Congratulations, thus humbly offered to your Majesty, we beg Leave to add our earnest Supplications to the Almighty, for the Health of his Royal Highness the Prince, and that he may live to inherit all your Majesty's Virtues, and to transmit that Happiness to our Posterity, which we at present enjoy under the auspicious Government of the most excellent and most amiable of Kings.

Given under our Common Seal this Thirtieth Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and sixty two.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the ancient Corporation of Lymington, has been presented to His Majesty by Adam Drummond, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the ancient Corporation of Lymington.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the ancient Corporation of Lymington, with Hearts full of unfeigned Joy, beg Leave, (with great Humility) to congratulate your Majesty on the Birth of his Royal Highness the Prince, your Majesty's Royal Son. We justly esteem and acknowledge this providential Event, (favoured with such happy Circumstances to our beloved and most gracious Queen) as a particular Mark of Divine Regard, extended to your Majesty and your Subjects, in Return for your Majesty's unbounded Virtues. We will constantly, and most assiduously pray for every Blessing that Heaven can bestow in this World, and the Life to come, on your Majesty and your most Illustrious Family.

Town Hall, Lymington, August 25, 1762.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Northampton, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Spencer Compton, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Northampton, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Northampton, rejoicing at every Good that attends your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, humbly beg Leave to pay our most respectful Congratulations to your Majesty on the auspicious Birth of a Prince of Great Britain.

The Divine Goodness is manifested to us by bestowing on these Kingdoms such an early Fruit of your Majesty's wife and happy Marriage.

Such a Blessing fills our Minds with a Commemoration of the glorious Times of Liberty hitherto enjoyed under the most excellent Government of your Majesty and your Royal Ancestors.

Such

Such a Blessing affords us the pleasing Expectation of a long Continuance of that invaluable Liberty, inasmuch as the Heir Apparent of the Crown of these Realms is descended from your Royal Loyns, and whose Mind in due Time, your People are well assured, under the Favour of God, and your Majesty's and Royal Consort's Cares and Instructions, will be cultivated to the highest Perfection.

We therefore, full of Thanksgiving to the Almighty, humbly implore Him that His further Blessings may be continually flowing down on your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and his Royal Highness the Prince; and that the Government of these Kingdoms may be perpetuated to your Majesty, and your Illustrious House, to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal this 30th Day of August, 1762.

St. James's, September 7.
